2. Complete the following text using the correct forms of the words in 1.

Nowadays, information on the internet is (1) _____ very quickly. The Internet has also changed (2) _____, and forced newspapers and magazines to move online. However, not all information on the Internet is (3) _____. Some information sources on the Internet may spread (4) _____, which confuses people. Others may contain strong (5) _____ against certain groups of people in society such as women or old people. Therefore, users should be careful when accessing information on the Internet.