

Replace the words in the sentences with phrasal verbs:

be knocked out, set up, send off, pull out of, join in, catch on, put away, put off

1. The new song quickly became popular with young people.
2. When everybody started dancing, Tom decided to participate.
3. Because of the fire, the company had to withdraw from the contract.
4. Please tidy away your textbooks before you leave the classroom.
5. We'll have to postpone the picnic because it's raining.
6. She was eliminated from the tennis competition in the first round.
7. The bad weather put off the school trip until next week.
8. It took a few months for the new fashion trend to become popular