1. _____Being popular and attractive is more important than being good at what you do.
2. _____Even if you lack money or a business plan, you can still start a successful business.
3. _____When you start a business, it's OK if you or others have doubts about its success.
4. _____Many people who are now successful entrepreneurs did not finish their education.
5. _____Ask for advice only from successful people or people who helped you in the past.
6._____Not everyone has an ambition to be an entrepreneur; sometimes it just happens.
7._____It's good to have determination, not give up, and be flexible when things change.
8._____Accept that you can't solve every problem or know the answer to every question.
9._____Work as much as possible during the first year that your company is in business.
10._____Having confidence in yourself and a good sense of humor can both be very helpful

LIVEWORKSHEETS