Title: Lesson 6 Writing (A report)

Aim: To write a short report

Hello my friends, I am Saleh, and I am here today to help you write a short report! Join me as we learn the steps of writing. It's going to be exciting!

When we write short reports, we need to include facts.

When we write short reports, we need to include opinions.

We can use reference words like: it, them, this, that, and there so we don't repeat the same words in a sentence or the next sentence.

When usually use verbs in the past to describe what happened in the topic of our report.

In reports, we have an introduction to the topic (where and when), a body (list things. happened in the trip report, and a conclusion to tell about your opinion about the trip and how you felt.

Writing

Write a short report about a place you have visited recently with your family.
Write between 40-60 words.
