Home Schooling

For many people, the choice (0) ...of... school is just a matter of choosing between a private (1) a public one. However, for a rapidly growing (2) of parents and children, school has nothing to do with classrooms, teachers or school uniforms. For them, there is simply no place (3) home when it comes to education. These people feel that their children do not receive satisfactory education at school. As a (4), they choose to teach their child in the comfort of their own home and at the same (5) have some control over the teaching process. (6), home schooling has many benefits. Children can work at their own pace, (7) to their own abilities. They are not (8) back by slower students or worried about being slow themselves. They can study what they are interested (9) and learn to work on their own, (10) prepares them for further education. They (11) have fewer behavioural problems and are less dependent and (12) mature.

Gibraltar

Gibraltar is probably the most famous rock in the (0) ...world.... It is not an island as many people think but actually a small country (1) is connected to the Spanish mainland. Gibraltar is also perfectly located as it separates Europe (2) Africa and the Atlantic Ocean from the Mediterranean Sea. It is not very big though, and only a (3) people live there. Finding somewhere to stay in Gibraltar (4) be difficult so it's a good idea to book a hotel (5) you go. Some of the hotels have their own gardens and swimming pool(s). The first (6) you should do when you arrive in Gibraltar (7) to go on a tour of the rock. There is a cable car which will take you to the top, (8) the view is absolutely beautiful. If you are interested in caves, (9) Gibraltar is just the place for you, as it is (10) of them. So, whether you are looking for a different (11) of holiday or you want to go on a day trip (12) you are in Spain, come to Gibraltar.

Hanging by a Thread

So you think you (0) ...would... like to try bungee jumping? Before starting, let me tell you (1) an incident that might convince you otherwise. On January 8, 1999 a sixteen-year-old Korean girl decided she wanted (2) excitement in her life, so thought she would give bungee jumping a go. She jumped (3) a 15-metre high platform and everything seemed normal. The problem was (4) because of the cold, a support wire had frozen and she couldn't (5) brought down.

She had to hang upside (6) ten metres from the ground until firemen came to her rescue, four hours (7) On investigating the incident, it was discovered that the owner of the platform (8) ignored the cold weather conditions. Furthermore, (9) of the operators of the bungee jump had any safety or rescue training. (10) asked to comment, the owner stated, "Frankly, I don't know (11) about a bungee. I just want to (12) money."

The Importance of the Dinner Table

Not too long ago, the dinner table was the centre (0) ...of... family life. Parents and children would (1) around the table, enjoy a good home-made meal and discuss the day's events. Nowadays, (2), the family dinner table has become a thing of the past. The reason for this is the (3) that parents don't spend as much time with their children as they once (4) to. In most households, (5) parents work and are simply (6) tired to organise meals and other domestic matters. (7), many experts insist that time spent at the family dining table is essential to the well-being of the family unit. Gathering for meals gives children a sense of security (8) helps them understand and appreciate family life. Experts also claim that children not (9) get a nourishing meal but they also get emotional, intellectual and spiritual nourishment. (10), whether it is once a month or once a week, busy parents should (11) aside a few hours of their time to organise a family meal and spend quality time with their children. (12) all, the family that eats together, stays together.
