FUNCTIONS USED TO DESCRIBE GOOD AND BAD EXPECTATIONS

	GOOD	BAD
1. I have a _____ about this.	☐	☐
2. I'm _____ there's no way...	☐	☐
3. Something _____ wrong.	☐	☐
4. That _____ very good.	☐	☐
5. I don't like _____ of...	☐	☐
6. That could be _____ .	☐	☐
7. I'm really _____ to...	☐	☐
8. I can _____ wait to...	☐	☐
9. I can't _____ to do this.	☐	☐

VERBAL COMBINATIONS: AWAY × BACK

1. The city is so crowded for the festival that every inn and hotel are turning people _____.
2. The best part of traveling by train is that you can sit _____ and enjoy the view as you cross the country.
3. Mike tried to fight _____ his exhaustion so he could keep going.
4. I can't wait to lie _____ on the sand and feel the ocean breeze against my face.
5. This crime wave is bad for business. It's driving the tourists _____.
6. I tried to help packing but my wife told me to stand _____ because I was making a mess.
7. As the band started playing, I looked at my brother and saw that he was holding _____ the tears.
8. Did you honestly think you could walk into a bar and drink your troubles _____?
9. My son is only five years old and he's already talking _____.
10. Ms. Bennet gave _____ most of her fortune to charity.

AWAY X BACK

- ☐ to restrain/contain or control
- ☐ to a great distance from a place
- ☐ out of existence or notice, into extinction
- ☐ to reply rudely to someone, in response or as a reaction
- ☐ movement backwards, away from the front and towards the rear
- ☐ in a resting position, recline
- ☐ out of possession or use

word bank

VOLUNTOURISM • NOVICE • OUTREACH PROGRAMS • TO GET ACQUAINTED W/
SKEPTICAL • DAY-TO-DAY • ASSIST • BEFOREHAND • ENTRY • TO WARM UP

Adapted from Gold2

LIVEWORKSHEETS