

A great TRIP

One day Daisy went for a trip. She wanted to visit her old friend Jack. On Saturday Daisy got up. It was very early in the morning. It was only half past six. Her cat sat next to the bed and looked at Daisy. Daisy got dressed, had breakfast and drove by car to the station. Her train left at 8:06 from the station. She got on the train and took a seat. She bought a comic and she read it. She arrived at a London Waterloo station at 9:05.

Her friend was there and he waited for Daisy. They went to a Chinese restaurant and they had lunch. They ate soup and sushi. Then they went shopping in Oxford Street and they bought a lot of presents. Daisy took some photographs of Jack. Her favourite photo was Jack in front of the Houses of Parliament with a famous clock tower with BIG BEN. Then they saw a Tower bridge. In the evening they went to the cinema and they saw a romantic film.

It was a nice day, but Daisy was very tired. She caught a train at 22:00 and went home. Her cat waited for Daisy. She looked through the window and smiled. Daisy had a shower and then she went to bed. She slept, but suddenly at 2:10 Daisy woke up, because she realised, that she lost her umbrella.
