On Monday afternoon, I went to the supermarket with my sister Sara. We needed to buy some ingredients for a cake because we are making one for my mom's birthday. I bought flour, sugar, and some fresh strawberries. Sara picked out some chocolate for decoration. After shopping, we went back home and started helping with the housework. We washed the dishes and took out the rubbish. Then, we cleaned the living room by dusting the furniture and sweeping the floor. After finishing our housework, we started baking the cake. It smelled so delicious! I can't wait to see my mom's reaction when she tastes it.
