NEVER ENOUGH by Loren Allred

Drag the lines in the correct order:

Take my hand
Can't let this moment end
I'm trying to hold my breath
Getting louder now
Can you hear it echoing?
You set off a dream in me
Will you share this with me?
Let it stay this way
'Cause darling without you

Join the two halves :

All the shine of a	are still too little
All the stars we steal	the world but it'll
Will never be enough,	never be enough
Towers of gold	thousand spotlights
These hands could hold	be enough
Never be enough, never	from the night sky

For me
Never, never. Never, never. Never, for me. For me
