

MINIMAL PAIRS

A minimal pair is two words that are almost the same but have one different sound that changes the meaning of the word.

In this interactive worksheet, you will listen, read, write and match minimal pairs to practice them.

1. Click the word you hear.

- Back / Pack
- Ten / Teen
- Check / Chick
- Toy / Boy
- Pig / Big
- Chip / Cheat
- Two / Do
- God / Good

2. Match the minimal pairs and pronounce them focusing on the difference.

Ice	Mean
End	Sheep
Prize	Doll
Ship	Bite
Tall	And
Bit	Eyes
Leave	Price
Men	Lift

3. Complete the sentence choosing the correct answer.

- The is very big.
- I'm a of this team.
- I eat a sweet .
- The is in the forest.
- A people are here.
- The is beautiful.
- We eat and we play.
- I have pencils.
- I'm at home
- I a new book.

4. Write the word that corresponds to the image.

Ride Cat Fun Dad Write Cut Fan Mad

