Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

Language is indispensable to humans. It helps us share our thoughts, express our emotions, and understand one another. Without language, we wouldn't be able to build relationships or learn from others. Over time, languages have gradually developed, changing in sounds, grammar, and vocabulary. That's why the way people speak today is often very different from how their grandparents spoke.

Around the world, there are thousands of languages. Some are spoken by millions of people, while others are used by only a small group. Sadly, many of these smaller languages are disappearing. When a language dies, we also lose part of a culture and history. That's why many specialists are working hard to protect endangered languages before they are lost forever.

Question 16. What is the main idea of the first paragraph?

A. The history of how grandparents spoke in the past.

B. The importance of language in human communication and its evolution.

- C. The role of grammar and vocabulary in building relationships.
- D. The reason why people should learn many languages.

Question 17. According to the passage, what would happen if we didn't protect languages?

- A. We would have to use sounds and gestures only.
- B. We could not express our emotions or learn from others.
- C. We would speak the same way as our grandparents.
- D. We would only be able to share thoughts with family.

Question 18. The word "indispensable" in the first paragraph is closest in meaning to

_____.

- A. unnecessary
- B. traditional
- C. essential
- D. expensive

Question 19. What does the word "others" in the second paragraph refer to?

- A. languages
- B. millions of people
- C. specialists
- D. cultures

Question 20. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Language remains unchanged over long periods of time.
- B. All languages in the world are spoken by millions of people.
- C. The way we speak today is identical to how people spoke in the past.
- D. Protecting endangered languages helps preserve cultural history.
