

Relative pronouns - who vs. whose exercise

1. I don't like people who / whose talk loudly during movies.
2. The artist who / whose painted this mural is only nineteen.
3. Anyone who / whose wants to join the club must sign up today.
4. He is a chef who / whose recipes are known all over the world.
5. The child who / whose toy was broken started to cry.
6. I have a friend who / whose travels to Japan every summer.
7. Is he the person who / whose car was stolen last night?
8. The students who / whose finished the test early were allowed to leave.
9. The technician who / whose fixed my computer did a great job.
10. That's the traveler who / whose backpack was lost at the airport.
11. The doctor who / whose treated my grandmother was very kind.
12. She is the colleague who / whose desk is always covered in plants.
13. That is the author who / whose book won the Pulitzer Prize.
14. I know a boy who / whose father is a professional pilot.
15. The neighbor who / whose lives next door is a famous musician.
16. The lady who / whose called you earlier didn't leave a message.
17. Do you know the man who / whose is standing by the window?
18. We met a hiker who / whose dog had run away on the trail.
19. The woman who / whose is wearing the red dress is my boss.
20. I met a girl who / whose brother goes to school with me.