

Instructions:

Complete each sentence with the correct form of the word in brackets. You may need to change it to a noun, verb, or adjective.

1. The report was heavily criticized due to several factual _____ that undermined its credibility.

(accurate)

2. Many commuters expressed frustration at the _____ caused by the sudden closure of several subway stations.

(convenient)

3. Frequent delays have led passengers to question the _____ of the railway system.

(reliable)

4. The witness's testimony was considered _____ because it contradicted earlier statements.

(consistent)

5. The data collected during the survey proved to be largely _____, making it difficult to draw meaningful conclusions.

(accurate)

6. The lack of funding has made several important public services _____ to low-income communities.

(accessible)

7. Scholars value sources that provide not only general explanations but also _____ evidence to support academic arguments.

(detail)

8. The success of modern remote work largely depends on the _____ of employees who must constantly adapt to shifting schedules and responsibilities.

(flexible)

9. The latest generation of laptops emphasizes _____, allowing professionals to work efficiently while travelling.

(portable)

10. For the presentation to be effective, it must not only be engaging but also sufficiently _____ for the audience.

(informative)