unit 3 period 2

Ann's Story - Reading Comprehension Quiz

1. At what age did Ann start helping her mother make biscuits

a) At the age of ten

b) At the age of five

c) At the age of seven

2. What was Ann particularly good at doing?

a) Baking the biscuits

b) Selling the biscuits

c) Decorating the biscuits

3. What was the shape of the cake she made for her brother's birthday?

a) A princess castle

b) A wedding cake

c) A car

4. Why was Ann worried when the cake shop asked her to supply them?

a) She didn't like the cake shop

b) She was worried about having enough time

c) She didn't know how to make many cakes

5. What "special arrangement" did the cake shop offer Ann?

a) She only had to make cakes for her friends

b) She only had to accept the orders she could manage

c) She had to accept all their orders

6. What is the scale of Ann's project this week?

a) A cake for a small family party

b) A wedding cake for 100 people

c) Several car-shaped cakes

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Reading Comprehension Quiz: Joe’s Story

1. Why couldn't Joe's family buy him a new bike?

A) Joe didn't like new bikes.

B) His father had lost his job.

C) There were no bike shops nearby.

D) Joe wanted to build one himself.

2. What was wrong with the bike Joe got from his neighbour?

A) The frame was damaged and it needed a wheel.

B) It was too small for him.

C) It was missing all its parts.

D) The engine was broken.

3. How much did Joe pay for the second bike he found on the internet?

A) A small amount of money.

B) He traded his old bike for it.

C) It was free.

D) Mr. Wilson paid for it.

4. How did Joe manage to build his "new" bike?

A) He bought new parts from a shop.

B) He used the good parts from two different old bikes.

C) His dad helped him repair the frame.

D) He won a competition.

5. What is Joe's plan for the future?

A) To become a professional cyclist.

B) To work for Mr. Wilson.

C) To start a bike repair/construction business.

D) To sell computers on the internet.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. What did Mr. Wilson mean when he said "If you can repair or recycle it, I'll be happy"?

A) He wanted Joe to pay him later for the bike.

B) He was glad the bike would be used instead of being thrown away.

C) He wanted Joe to fix the bike and then give it back to him.

D) He didn't think Joe was capable of fixing such a damaged bike.

7. How has Joe's hobby changed since he built his first bike?

A) He stopped liking bikes and started a different hobby.

B) He only looks for free things on the internet now.

C) It grew from a personal need into helping friends and a future career idea.

D) He decided to go back to school to study engineering instead.

SAFIAH EL MASRI

LIVEWORKSHEETS