

Look at the picture and choose the correct answers to complete the dialogue

- A: Building B is 1. not as tall as / taller than Building C.
B: Yes. But Building A is 2. as tall as / taller than Building C.
A: Building C is 3. as wide as / wider than Building A.
B: That's true. But Building A is 4. wider than / as wide as Building B.
A: Look! Only Building B hasn't got a garden.
B: You're 5. right / wrong. Building A has got a garden, but it's
6. larger than / smaller than Building C's garden.

Complete the text. Use the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in brackets. Type the answers.

NOTHING TO HIDE

Amsterdam is one of the 1 (popular) tourist destinations in the world.
Its buildings are 2 (beautiful) the buildings of many cities.
It's also got some of the 3 (amazing) museums and the 4 (tasty) street food in Europe. But there's another reason to visit the city. It's one of the 5 (good) ways to learn about Dutch culture and home life. That's because Dutch people aren't as private as many Europeans are. Their windows have rarely got curtains on them, and seeing a real home is 6 (interesting) many tourist activities. In other cultures, looking into another person's house is one of the 7 (bad) types of behaviour. But according to Dutch culture, a good person has got nothing to hide!

Complete the sentences with the superlative form of the adjectives in brackets. Type the answers.

1. This is (big) train station in the world.

2. Main Street is (noisy) street in the city.

3. This is (fascinating) museum in the area.

4. That's (bad) neighbourhood in the city.

5. This is (exciting) town in the country.

Complete the chart. Type the answers

Adjective	Superlative
	the smallest ugly
	the most polluted beautiful good the longest elegant far the fattest

