There was an elderly couple who in their old age noticed that they were getting a lot more forgetful, so they decided to go to the doctor. The doctor told them that they should start writing things down so they wouldn't forget. They went home and the old lady told her husband to get her a bowl of ice cream. "You might want to write it down," she said. The husband said, "No, I can remember that you want a bowl of ice cream." She then told her husband that she wanted a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream. "Write it down," she told him, and again he said, "No, no, I can remember: you want a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream." Then the old lady said she wanted a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream and a cherry on top. "Write it down," she told her husband and again he said, "No, I got it. You wanted a bowl of ice cream with whipped cream and a cherry on top." So he went to get the ice cream and spent unusually long time in the kitchen, over 30 minutes. He came out to his wife and handed her a plate of eggs and bacon. The old wife stared at the plate for a moment, then looked at her husband and asked, "Where's the toasts?"
