

Objective: To identify the grammatical rule and use it correctly.

1
LEVEL

Read the sentences and fill in the blanks:

might not	will	could
• It's very cold today. It snow tonight.
• Be careful! You fall on the wet floor.
• He is feeling sick. He go to school tomorrow.

2
LEVEL

Read the statements. Tick (✓) the best prediction for each situation:

Situation #1 : I'm not sure where my bag is.
<input type="checkbox"/> It will be in my room.	<input type="checkbox"/> It might be in the classroom.	<input type="checkbox"/> It won't be anywhere.
Situation #2 : Be careful! The floor is wet.
<input type="checkbox"/> You could slip.	<input type="checkbox"/> You will be safe.	<input type="checkbox"/> You won't fall.
Situation #3: The teacher is absent today.
<input type="checkbox"/> She might be sick.	<input type="checkbox"/> She will come now.	<input type="checkbox"/> She won't be a teacher.