

Name and surname: _____ Class: _____

Write the correct option for each animal:

	Vertebrate/ Invertebrate	Group	Reproduction	Type of food
Shark
Butterfly
Cocodrile
Octopus
Duck
Starfish

Write true or false

- Invertebrate animals have a backbone.
- Reptiles are vertebrate animals.
- Echinoderms are vertebrate animals.
- Insects have a body divided into head, thorax, and abdomen.
- All mollusks have two shells.
- Vertebrate animals have their bodies divided into three parts.
- All invertebrate animals are oviparous.
- The reproduction of insects is called metamorphosis.
- Mollusks do not have a soft body.

3. Fill in the blanks with the following words

- Backbone birds scales mammals Flying amphibians

Invertebrate animals do not have _____. Animals that are born from the mother's womb belong to the group of _____.

Fish have bodies covered in _____. Birds move by _____.

_____ have bodies covered in feathers and have wings.

_____ can live in rivers, lakes, or on land.

4. Write the group to which these animals belong.

Butterfly _____

Zebra _____

Fly _____

Chicken _____

Spider _____

Octopus _____

Sponge _____

Salmon _____

Frog _____

Jellyfish _____

5. Match with arrows according to the characteristics of how they cover their body

Salmon

Feathers

Snake

Squid

Hair

Koala

Parrot

Skin

Pig

Dog

Scales

Duck