

1 Complete the text with the words from the box.

compatibility functionality handle latest state of the art upgrade

Many people want the ⁰ latest technology. My wife wants to ¹ _____ our music centre to one which we can control with our home computer. Because of the better ² _____, we could do much more with this system, such as mix our own music. But we have to check ³ _____ with our desktop because new software might be needed. Can our old computer ⁴ _____ the extra processing requirements? I hope so because we heard a demonstration in the shop: the equipment offers ⁵ _____ technology and it sounded great.

____ / 5

2 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

- 0 Our drone is a great toy! Its sensors / senses tell us about temperature, pressure – everything!
- 1 We kindly ask passengers to switch off their personal electronic devices / appliances during landing and take-off.
- 2 Grandad's Harley looks dated / outdated, but I like that appearance and it runs just as well as a modern motorcycle.
- 3 At first, I thought that this 1970s coffee table would look obsolete / outdated in my new flat, but in fact, it's my favourite piece of furniture.
- 4 Does this store deliver cookers, fridges and other kitchen appliances / devices for free?
- 5 People used to listen to recorded music on tape in plastic cassettes, but they are almost dated / obsolete now.

____ / 5

3 Complete the sentences with the missing words. The first letters are given.

- 0 Electronics companies advertise their latest products even before they are available.
- 1 You need to b_____ up important computer files in case you lose them.
- 2 There is still an important g_____ in the security system that we have to fix before we can use it.
- 3 My friends say I'm o_____ f_____ because I like music and clothes from the 80s and 90s.
- 4 The new accounting software had a b_____ which caused it to give some inaccurate results.
- 5 My brother collects g_____. He's got one that looks a bit like a knife: it cuts letter shapes from vegetables.

____ / 5

TOTAL ____ / 15