

People in cities need to use different types of mean of transport to move around. Of course, some people in cities walk, but some cities are famous for the types of transport people use.

In Amsterdam many people travel by car, taxi or the Underground. There are also lots of trams. People in Amsterdam also travel by bicycle. There are more bicycles in Amsterdam than people.

In London, many people travel on the famous double-decker buses. Some people travel by bicycle, car or taxi, but lots of people in London travel on the Underground. The London Underground is also called the Tube.

In Venice, Italy there are no roads. There are lots of canals. Some people travel in small boats called gondolas, but lots of people travel by water bus.

1. Complete the sentences with one word.

- a. In London many people travel on double-decker _____
- b. The _____ is the name of the London Underground.
- c. In Amsterdam there are lots of _____. But lots of people travel by _____.

2. Tick the correct sentences.

- There are more people than bikes in Amsterdam.
- The London tram is the Tube.
- People don't use buses to travel in London.
- Nobody in cities walk.
- Venice is in Italy.
- In Venice there are lots of roads.
- A gondola is a small boat.
- There are no cars in Venice.

3. Read and write: Amsterdam, London or Venice.

- There are canals in _____
- People use big buses in _____
- People travel by the Tube in _____
- There are lots of bicycles in _____
- There are aquatic buses in _____
- There are lots of trams in _____

4. Change the present sentences into the past.

There are lots of bicycles. _____

There isn't an underground. _____

People travel by train. _____

Some people use the tram. _____

People ride a bike. _____

Men drive a bus. _____

Women don't use the tube. _____

My favorite mean of transport is the plane.
