

Name Race!

Ready, Set, Go!

Welcome to the Name Race! We need to fix these sentences quickly so they don't sound repetitive.

Your Mission: Look at the underlined names in the sentences below. Replace them with the correct pronoun from the Pit Stop (Word Bank).

Pit Stop (Word Bank)

He She It They We

Warm-Up: Spot the Pronouns! 🔍

Before we start the race, let's see if you can find the pronouns. A pronoun is a small word that takes the place of a noun (like a person's name, a place, or a thing).

1. 1. In the sentence 'He is my best friend,' which word is the pronoun?	a) He b) is c) friend
2. 2. Identify the pronoun: 'They like to play football after school.'	a) football b) They c) play

1. 3. Find the pronoun: 'The dog is fast. It is brown.'

- a) dog
- b) brown
- c) It

Tip: Look for short words like He, She, It, We, and They. They act like secret identities for our characters!

Lap 1: One Person or Thing

Read the sentence. Write the new sentence using He, She, or It.

1. Mark is a tall boy. Okon likes to run.

2. Sarah is playing. Adeke is happy.

3. The cat is sleeping. The cat is on the mat.

Lap 2: Groups of Friends

Now use They or We to fix these sentences.

4. Emeka and Chidi are running. Emeka and Chidi are fast.

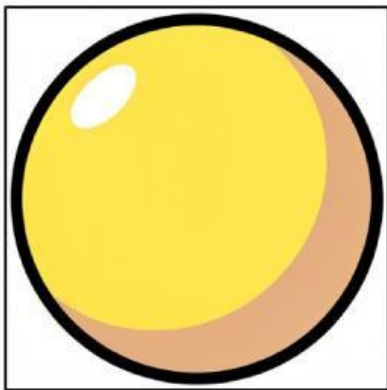

5. My friend and I are here. My friend and I are ready to race!
