

Read and match.

1. How long did the party last?

2. What did you wear at the party?

3. How much sugar would you like in your coffee?

4. Where did the party take place?

5. How many cookies did you eat?

6. Why don't we organize a surprise party for Jane?

7. What time did the party start?

8. Whose wedding party are you going to attend?

A. Just a little, please.

B. Nearly three hours.

C. Great idea!

D. My uncle's.

E. Only two.

F. At a restaurant.

G. A long red dress.

H. At 3 pm.

Fill in the gaps with some / any.

1. We didn't buy flowers for the party.
2. Can I have milk in my coffee, please?
3. I'm busy this evening. I have homework to do.
4. I went to the supermarket because I didn't have milk.
5. Can you go shopping? We need eggs and flour for the birthday cake.
6. I would like to stay longer, but I don't have time.
7. Could you bring me bread from the bakery?
8. I took some photos on our school trip, but Jane didn't take photos.

Choose the correct one.

1. Ann: What would you like in your coffee?

Bill: Just a few / little sugar, please.

2. Amy: Will you buy this jacket?

Bob: No, I've only got a few / little money left, so I can't afford it.

3. Mary: There are still a few / little tickets left for the concert on Friday night.

Tim: Great! I'll go and buy one now.

4. Can I ask you a little / few questions about your job?

5. Let's go and have a coffee. We have a few / little time before the movie starts.

6. I have a little / few close friends and we meet quite often and spend time together.