

Section 5

Passage 5

When the police arrived at the museum, the room Dr Cuttle had entered was locked from the inside. Fearing he may have suffered a heart attack, or had an accident, they produced a steel battering ram and smashed the door open. The room was empty.

Questions

6. Why do the police smash the door open?

7. What does the phrase “locked from the inside” suggest to the reader?

8. How does the final sentence create tension or mystery?

9. Why is the sentence “The room was empty.” kept very short?

10. What question does this ending make the reader want to ask?

Section 5

Passage 5

When the police arrived at the museum, the room Dr Cuttle had entered was locked from the inside. Fearing he may have suffered a heart attack, or had an accident, they produced a steel battering ram and smashed the door open. The room was empty.

Questions

1. Why do the police smash the door open?

2. What does the phrase “locked from the inside” suggest to the reader?

3. How does the final sentence create tension or mystery?

4. Why is the sentence “The room was empty.” kept very short?

5. What question does this ending make the reader want to ask?
