

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Part A – Choose the Correct Answer

1. Telecommunication means:
 - a) Sending food
 - b) Sending messages over a distance
 - c) Driving cars
 - d) Building houses
2. The telegraph was used to send:
 - a) Pictures
 - b) Letters on paper
 - c) Electrical signals
 - d) Videos
3. The telephone allows people to:
 - a) Send smoke signals
 - b) Talk to someone far away
 - c) Send letters by horse
 - d) Travel faster
4. The internet allows people to:
 - a) Send emails
 - b) Ride trains
 - c) Build ships
 - d) Print newspapers

Part B – Write T (True) or F (False).

1. Telecommunication helps people communicate over long distances. _____
2. The telegraph came after smartphones. _____
3. Radios send sound through signals. _____
4. Email is sent using the internet. _____
5. Smartphones are a modern way to communicate. _____

Part C – Circle the Right Answer

1. A telephone is used for _____ (Talking / Cooking).
2. Television sends _____ (Messages and images / Horses).

Part D – USE THE WORDS to fill in the blanks: internet | signals | telephone | faster

1. The telegraph sent electrical _____.
2. The _____ lets people talk to someone far away.
3. The internet makes communication _____.
4. Email is sent using the _____.

Part E – Write the words under the correct time: Telegraph | Smartphone | Telephone | Internet

| THEN (Long Ago) | NOW (Today) |
|-----------------|-------------|
|-----------------|-------------|

Part F – Answer with a complete sentence

1. Why was the telephone an important invention?

2. How is communication today different from long ago?
