Man: As you all know, Mr. Snow is leaving [ ], at the end of the spring term. Unfortunately he decided not to stay until next year. (6) He is now [ ] and he would like to stop teaching before he is 65.

We know that he is [ ] with our students and we would like to buy him a [ ]. If we collect enough money, we can buy him something really nice. (7) We have already collected £60, but we need at least £[ ] more to make a total of £100. Someone suggested buying a clock, and someone else suggested a [ ]. But (8) we decided to buy him a [ ] instead, because he loves watching films! Your teachers will collect money for Mr. Snow in the school cafeteria after lessons, next Friday.

We finish lessons at midday, on Friday 15th April. (9) On [ ] 16th we will meet at school at around [ ] to prepare for the party. (10) The party starts at [ ]. Then a student will give him the present. I hope all our teachers and some parents will be there and of course, all of you!

Mike: Hi Zoe! (11) Have you heard about the [ ]? It starts next week.
Zoe: No, but I'm not too interested in [ ]
Mike: Well, I'm not so interested, either! But (11) a [ ] was telling me about it. He goes to lots of arts events. He told me to look [ ] (12) There are some [ ] on, that we could go to!
Zoe: (12) Really? That sounds interesting. (13) Are there any [ ] concerts that I would like? Or, is it classical music only?
Mike: Most of it is [ ]. However, I think you'd like one of these concerts.
Zoe: Oh, why? (14) Is someone [ ] playing?
Mike: (14) Yes, Bob Wood. You know, the one who plays the guitar.
Zoe: That sounds nice. Where's the event?
Mike: It was going to be in the old cinema, near the stadium. But (14) he's so [ ] that they've changed their plans. Now it's going to be in the big exhibition centre.
Zoe: I suppose I should [ ] now. What date is it?
Mike: [ ]
Zoe: (15) Oh no. I can't come! It's my [ ]
Mike: Can't she come too? Or doesn't she like music?
Zoe: She does! That's why (15) she's asked me to do the music at her party!
Mike: That's a pity!
