

Although many schools organise an anti-bullying campaign to raise awareness ,	As a result , their self-confidence decreases and they may feel anxious or even experience depression .
In spite of several campaigns to reduce crime and poverty ,	Therefore , governments must promote policies to improve people's living conditions.
Many teenagers suffer from body shaming and peer pressure .	cyberbullying and verbal bullying are still serious social issues in modern society .
Because cyberbullying can seriously affect students' school performance and cause anxiety ,	However , true friends should support them and show sympathy .
Many teenagers feel embarrassed about their appearance because of body shaming ,	schools should teach students to stand up to bullies and show sympathy for each victim .
Some students hang out with the wrong social group under peer pressure .	As a consequence , they may become involved in crime or other offensive behaviour.
In addition to raising awareness about bullying ,	which may lead to depression and low self-confidence .
A recent survey shows that overpopulation and poverty are serious social issues .	these pressing social issues still affect many people in developing societies .
Some students feel like the odd one out because of their appearance or fashionable clothes.	they often struggle with poor school performance and higher crime rates in society .
Since many children live in poverty ,	many schools promote awareness campaigns to deal with this social issue .