

2C How to ... order a meal in a restaurant

REFERENCE

◀ page 23

We use can, could and would like / 'd like to make requests in a restaurant.

Can I	have	a glass of water,	please?
Could we		some peas,
I'd	like	some vegetable soup,	please.
I would

Can and could are both polite, but could is a little more polite.

We use some to make a request with plural and uncountable nouns. Don't use any.

Can I have some potatoes, please?

Could we have some water, please?

We can use the to order something on the menu.

I'd like the chocolate ice cream, please.

Can I have the salmon, please?

To reply to requests, yes or no are not very polite. We usually answer with a phrase.

positive	negative
Yes, of course.	I'm sorry, we don't have any
Yes, certainly.	soup left.
Sure, no problem.*	I'm afraid we close at ten.

* This is informal.

PRACTICE

1 Choose the correct word(s) to complete the sentences.

- Can we have some / any bread, please?
- I'd like / I like the lamb curry, please.
- I could / Could I have some sparkling mineral water, please?
- Sure, not / no problem.
- Can we have bill, / the bill, please?
- I'm sorry, we don't have some / any chicken left.
- Could I have a bottle / bottle of water, please?
- I afraid / I'm afraid we don't have any green tea.

2 Correct the conversation. Add the words in the box. You do not need one of the words.
