Private, Public and Multinational Companies Assignment

1. Which of the following is a feature of private sector enterprises?
a) Government ownership
b) Profit maximization
c) Public accountability
d) Social welfare

2. A government company is defined as a company in which:
a) 100% capital is held by government
b) At least 51% capital is held by government
c) At least 50% capital is held by public
d) Equal ownership by public and private sector

3. Which form of public enterprise is established by a Special Act of Parliament?
a) Government company
b) Departmental undertaking
c) Statutory corporation
d) Joint sector

4. Which of the following enterprises is directly controlled by a ministry?
a) Government company
b) Statutory corporation
c) Departmental undertaking
d) Multinational company

5. Multinational companies operate in:
a) One country only
b) Two countries only
c) More than one country
d) Only developing countries

6. Which of the following is not an objective of public sector enterprises?
a) Economic development
b) Social welfare
c) Profit maximization as sole objective
d) Balanced regional development

7. Joint sector enterprises are owned by:
a) Only government
b) Only private individuals
c) Both government and private sector
d) Foreign investors only

8. Which of the following is an advantage of multinational companies?
a) Limited production
b) Access to advanced technology
c) No competition
d) Reduced employment