Reading

12 Read the email. Complete 1–6 with sentences a–g. There is one extra sentence.

Hi Keith
It's so good to hear from you. [1] e You say it's been 15 years, but I think it might be more like 20. I'm sure that the last time we saw each other was just after the graduation party. I still look at the photos from that night sometimes. They're so funny.
So you're married to Safi! I'm so happy for you both. Well, you guys were always close at college so it doesn't surprise me at all. I spoke to Rich Paisley on Thursday night (we hang out at least once a week) and he said that the last time he'd heard from you, you had two boys. [2] ___ In my experience, one boy is enough so two must be really hard work! We'd had two daughters before Robbie was born and it is so different. The girls keep him out of trouble though.
I met Dima almost six years ago. Actually, it's our anniversary next month. We were living in Amsterdam, where we were both working on a recycling project, and really hit it off. [3] ___ If you and I hadn't done that Environmental Studies degree, I might never have met her. Are you still working in the environment industry? I hope so. Since we were studying together, things have really changed and there's so much more optimism about being able to do something positive for the planet. I really feel like we're making a difference now. A few years ago, I was really pessimistic about the future. Hopefully, things will continue to improve.
[4] ___ She was the girl who had the hotel in Chamonix that we stayed at for New Year back in our third year at uni. She still has the same hotel and we get together every New Year now. It's a lot of fun for us and the kids. I mentioned you'd been in touch and she said she'd love for you and your family to come over for the celebrations this year. [5] ___ Dima's also looking forward to meeting you, so you have to come for a visit to our place before then. It sounds like our kids are similar ages so it would be fun for them. We've got plenty of room in the house and we'd love for you all to stay over.
[6] ___ We're going camping at a lake near where we live and I can't remember where I've put the tents or sleeping bags. Reminds me of that trip we took down to Cornwall when we forgot just about everything important – including the tent!
Great to catch up with you and I look forward to hearing from you again very soon.
Take care
Ken

a Anyway, I need to get ready for the weekend.

b Have you had more since?

c We were married two years later.

d I hope you'll be able to come.

e ~~I can't believe how long it's been since we were last in touch.~~ f Do you remember Vicky?

g Lucy is growing up so fast.
