III. For each question, choose the correct answer A, B, or C.

Money and Life

A. Mrs. Lan

Mrs. Lan runs a small antique shop in the old quarter. She sells old furniture and decorations that are still in good condition. Every month, she saves up for new stock by carefully managing her budget. She never wastes money and always pays by cheque instead of cash.

B. Nam

Nam is a 15-year-old student who receives pocket money from his parents every week. He is very defiant when his parents tell him to save, but recently he has started to appreciate the value of money. He is now saving up for a new bicycle and tries to spend only a fraction of what he gets each week.

C. Mr. Hung

Mr. Hung used to work for a famous brand but was given the sack last year. At first he felt frustration and looked quite forlorn. However, his boss began to relent and offered him a new job. Now Mr. Hung manages a small team and responds quickly to any problems at work.

III. Read the text and choose the correct words to fill in the blanks. Write ONE WORD ONLY for each blank.

Tom had worked for a well-known brand for nearly ten years. He was good at his job and always tried his best, so it came as a huge shock when he was suddenly given the sack one Monday morning. He sat in his car for a long time, unable to drive home. He did not know how to respond to what had just happened. His wife called several times, but he could not bring himself to answer.

For the next few weeks, he felt nothing but frustration. He stopped meeting friends and spent most of his time alone at home. Then one afternoon, his teenage son, who had always been quite defiant and rarely showed emotion, sat beside him and said quietly that everything would be alright. That small moment changed everything. From that day on, Tom promised himself to always appreciate the little things in life and never take anything for granted again.

1. Tom worked for a well-known _____ for nearly ten years.
2. He was suddenly given the _____ one Monday morning.
3. He did not know how to _____ to what had just happened.
4. Tom felt nothing but _____ for several weeks.
5. His son had always been quite _____ and rarely showed emotion.
6. Tom promised to always _____ the little things in life.
