Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Learning Outcome (s)/Learning Experience(s): RIT<192-210+ I can inquire and be knowledgeable about how to use pronouns correctly in my writing by recognizing how pronouns replace nouns to make sentences clearer.

A pronoun take the place of nouns (person, animal, place, thing, idea). Writers use pronouns to make their writing less repetitive.

1. Subjective pronouns are used as the subject of a sentence.
2. Objective pronouns are used after action verbs.
3. Possessive pronouns show who or what owns, or possesses, something.
4. Reflexive pronouns are used when the person doing the action (subject) is the same as the person receiving the action (object).

Subjective pronouns	Objective pronouns	Possessive pronouns	Reflexive pronouns
I, you, he, she, it, we, they	Me, you, him, her, it, us, them	My, mine, your, yours, her, hers, our, ours, his, their, theirs, its	Myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves
