III SERIES: (20 points) Reading: The Romans

Select Yes or No.

The Romans

The Romans lived long ago. They were from Italy, but they also lived in other parts of Europe and North Africa. They built tall buildings and houses from wood and stone. They also built theaters and town halls. You can see them today!

All Roman towns had a market. Some people made things like combs, bowls, and cups for people to buy at the market. People bought fruit and vegetables, too. They used coins to buy things. Children played in the streets. Boys went to school, but they didn't write emails! Girls didn't go to school. They helped their parents and grandparents at home.
