

Customs Around the World

Hello! My name is Aisha. I want to tell you about customs and traditions in different countries.

In the UAE, people shake hands and share food with family and guests. People are very friendly, so they like to visit family often.

In Japan, people bow when they meet, but in the UAE, people shake hands. In Japan, people take off their shoes in the house to keep it clean.

In the UK, students wear a school uniform, but in the USA, students wear casual clothes.

In the UK, people drink tea with milk. In China, people use chopsticks to eat, but in India, people eat with their hands. These customs are different, but both are good.

Some traditions are similar. In many countries, people give gifts on special days and eat together with their family.

➤ Read and answer the questions:-

1. What is the main idea of the text?

- A. Comparing customs and traditions around the world
- B. Talking only about the UAE
- C. Talking about school

2. What can we understand about customs from different countries?

- A. One is right and others are wrong
- B. They are different but all are good
- C. Only one country is correct

3. Why does the writer give examples from many countries?

- A. To confuse the reader
- B. To help us understand how people live differently and similarly
- C. To talk about travel only