

Reading Comprehension

Liveworksheets (Progress Test A and B)

ACTIVITY 2 (c). Look through the completed story in ACTIVITY 2 (a). Choose the correct option (A-D) to answer the questions (1-6) below. Then underline or quote the part of the text that proves your answer.

- 1. What is true about the people in Beihai Park?*
  - A. They introduced themselves to the writer.
  - B. Some of them were writing graffiti.
  - C. Their art didn't last very long.
  - D. They use paint and big brushes.

- 2. What does the author say about the ice festival in Harbin?*
  - A. It's only popular with local people.
  - B. It's easy to make sculptures out of ice.
  - C. The sculptures don't last long.
  - D. The winter weather both helps and causes problems.

- 3. Which statement is true about Tibetan sand paintings?*
  - A. They take months to make.
  - B. They are made and destroyed by the same people.
  - C. They aren't easy to protect.
  - D. They are only understood by religious people.

- 4. What is true about the terracotta soldiers of Xi'an?*
  - A. They all look the same.
  - B. Nobody saw them for a long time.
  - C. Many people died making them.
  - D. They are bigger than real people.

5. Why was the author's visit to Zhangjiajie National Park important?

- A. She wanted to visit the place where they filmed Avatar.
- B. It is home to an important art museum.
- C. It changed her ideas about Chinese painting.
- D. It was her favourite stop on her trip.

6. What overall message does the article give about Chinese art?

- A. Most Chinese art is temporary.
- B. There are many different forms of Chinese art.
- C. A lot of Chinese art is very old.
- D. The best Chinese art was produced in the 16th century.