

1. Complete with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

1. A: Penny, by the end of the week you 1. _____ (work) on your dissertation for two months, so I wanted you to tell me how it's progressing.

B: I'm almost done with the first chapter. I 2. _____ (try) to finish it when I 3. _____ (get) home this evening.

A: That's good to hear.

B: Could I come to your office this time tomorrow and show you what I've done?

A: This time tomorrow I 4. _____ still _____ (teach) in class, but I 5. _____ gladly _____ (see) you after class.

You've reached encouragement cat.
Great job. Keep it up.

2. A: Are you sure you 6. _____ (finish) tidying the house by the time our guests arrive? It looks as if you haven't even started yet.

B: Don't worry, everything's under control. Their flight 7. _____ (arrive) at six and I 8. _____ (meet) them at the airport at half past.

A: By five you 9. _____ even _____ (not do) this room, let alone the rest of the flat.

B: 10. _____ you _____ (give) me a hand, then?

A: OK.