Unit 9 – Lesson 7 (2)

I live in Buenos Aires, the …… of Argentina. There are a lot of historic buildings in my city. For example, Banco de la Provincia was …… in the early 1800s and is the ……. bank in Latin America. I think it's amazing that it's still a bank today. There's also Café Tortoni. It was ……. to look like a coffeehouse in Paris and opened in 1858. People still…….coffee there today. Some old buildings are ……. ……. different things than they were in the past, like the Cabildo. It was built in the 1760s and used to be someone's home. Today it is a …….. with things from the 1700s.

I think it's really cool to …….. about the 1700s in a building that was made at that time! My favorite …….. that has been ……. is the Ateneo Grand Splendid Bookstore.

It opened in 1919 as a …….. Singers and tango dancers used to …….. there. In the early 2000s, it was ……. into a bookstore, and now you can …….. books on almost any subject there! You can experience history from more recent times too by going to a drive-in movie in Rosedal, a ……. in Buenos Aires. I like to see movies the way my grandparents did in the 1950s. And of course, there are many …… buildings, too, like the planetarium that lights up at night and …… like Saturn.
