

Study the following sentences for tomorrow's

Spelling Practice: Trombone Shorty got his nickname because the trombone was bigger than him. He played music in parades and on the streets of New Orleans. He joined a real band when he was very young. He worked hard and became a famous musician.