FOOD AROUND THE WORLD

Hamburgers in Peking, pizzas in Rio and Chinese food... everywhere!
Food is becoming more international these days. But are national dishes disappearing?

MIGUEL

(Valencia, Spain)

In Valencia we have a famous dish called paella. People often eat it for lunch on Sunday. Real paella comes from Valencia! It's easy to make: you just need rice, vegetables and chicken. It's delicious!

NITYA

(Calcutta, India)

There are a lot of hamburger and pizza restaurants in India. But my favourite food is still curry and rice, or a special bread called nan. Curry is very spicy, but I love it! People in Britain eat a lot of curry too. It certainly isn't disappearing!

EMILY

(Sydney, Australia)

In Australia we love barbecues. They are great fun - you can have them in the garden or at the beach. They're very easy to prepare: you just need some meat and different sauces. My dad makes delicious barbecued chicken. All my friends love it.
