Source: Oxford, classic tales

I.E. LEONIDAS RUBIO VILLEGAS
ENGLISH READING ACTIVITIES
SIXTH GRADE

Name: _____ Course:_____

Lownu mends the sky

This is China, in the old days. Every day the sky is blue. Blue, blue, blue.

And every night the sky is black. Black, black, black.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

One day a piece of blue falls. It falls out of the sky.

'Look!' says the big girl. 'What is it?'

'It's a piece of the sky!' says the big boy. 'Look! Another one!'

LIVEWORKSHEETS

'Look!' says the little boy.
'There's a hole! No! Two holes! Two holes in the sky!'

Another piece falls. Another piece of blue. And another one.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

'Look! I can see the night sky,' says the little girl. 'But it's day!'

'Let's tell Lownu.'

'Yes! Yes! Quick! Let's tell Lownu!'

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I.E. LEONIDAS RUBIO VILLEGAS
ENGLISH READING ACTIVITIES
SIXTH GRADE

Activity 1

1. Match the words with the description

a. Falling ( )	1. A space or opening where there is nothing
b. Blue ( )	2. when something goes down from the sky to the ground
c. Black ( )	3. the color of the sky during the day
d. Hole ( )	4. the color of the sky during the night

2. Choose true or false

a. In the old days, the sky is always green during the day. (_____)

b. One day, a piece of blue falls out of the sky. (_____)

c. The children see three holes in the sky. (_____)

d. The children can see the night sky during the day. (_____)

e. The children want to tell Lownu about the problem. (_____)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Who said it? Choose the correct character

The big girl / The big boy / The little boy / The little girl

a. "It's a piece of the sky! Look! Another one!"

b. "Look! What is it?"

c. "There's a hole! No! Two holes!"

d. "I can see the night sky... but it's day!"

4. Sequence the Story: Number the events from 1 to 4 in the correct order they appear in the story.

( ) The children decide to go and find Lownu.

( ) A piece of blue falls from the sky.

( ) The sky is blue every day and black every night in old China.

( ) The children see two holes and the night sky during the day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS