

1. Complete the sentences using the correct word from the box.

compare – contrast – differentiate – evaluate – analyze – assess – examine – distinguish – identify – healthcare

1. Carl and Amy need to _____ the most important elements for a good quality of life.
2. First, they _____ key elements such as health, happiness, and education.
3. Amy says they should _____ happiness and relationships carefully.
4. Carl wants to _____ health and financial security to see their differences.
5. They also _____ access to healthcare in different communities.
6. Amy decides to _____ safety and how it affects well-being.
7. Carl plans to _____ education as a long-term solution to reduce inequalities.
8. During the debate, they _____ both safety and education to understand their importance.
9. In their research, they _____ information and statistics about quality of life.
10. Finally, they _____ different lifestyles in the role-play activity.