

- 1 It was mentioned in the dissertation that normal tourism is mainly in famous places, while ecotourism is mainly in
- 2 It states that ecotourism works well in undeveloped areas because it helps the
- 3 Normal tourism in Africa typically has people enjoying sunshine at the beach or checking out the game animals.
- 4 Ecotourism visitors can take part in environmental programs that help the locals.
- 5 Locals benefit from ecotourism because is provided for untrained employees and employers.
- 6 Ecotourism also provides education and to the local population.
- 7 The essay says ecotourism has many accommodation options which can help a local area in a of economic development.
- 8 When the students asked, the professor said they should also address issues related to whether ecotourism is
- 9 When the students asked, the professor told them that their dissertation lacked a of ecotourism.
- 10 When the students asked, the professor said their essay lacked information on the of ecotourism.

- 1 The subject of the research focuses on the effect of music on at restaurants.
- 2 In cafes and restaurants, music is played at a uniform
- 3 In cafes and restaurants, music is played at a
- 4 The purpose of the questionnaire is to disguise the real goal of the
- 5 The purpose of the survey is to gain an edge over a
- 6 Aside from music, it's been found that a restaurant's also has an effect on diners.
- 7 It was discovered that people tend to spend when jazz music is played.
- 8 It was discovered that people tend to think that a restaurant is when there is no music playing.
- 9 It was discovered that people tend to forget rings on toilet sinks when is played.
- 10 It was discovered that people tend to return to a restaurant when is played.

- 1 People think witnesses are reliable because many of them exude'
- 2 The problem with the book is that the data in it were collected a'
- 3 Both of them agree about the validity of the evidence because what's important is how long the'
- 4 A fact about a naive observer is that in their mind, they don't think they have'
- 5 The defence team failed to correct the error in the testimony because they feared being seen as'
- 6 The prosecution team failed to compare and differentiate between reality and the'
- 7 The radar that was entered as evidence is a device that can determine whether a person feels fear in an'
- 8 The open questions that were being asked by the detectives in the detention room made the jury'
- 9 The closed investigation made it clear that children cannot tell the and then lie.
- 10 The panel of jurors, as well as the judge, were confused by the'

- 1 The study on the impact of art and music on hospital patients previously focused on those suffering from
- 2 The study on the impact of art and music on hospital patients previously focused on those suffering from the hands of
- 3 The response gathered from hospital staff when art was first used as a indicated that they disliked it.
- 4 What Zoe appreciates most about the research is that it has revealed how really are and how rude the staff can be.
- 5 The research showed that staff at the postnatal clinic are nicer and less rude to patients who are
- 6 The research aimed to disprove that art and music had little impact on patients.
- 7 The day surgery clinic can only handle patients whose heartbeat rate and are average.
- 8 It's interesting to note that patients at the children's clinic in the hospital.
- 9 The emergency unit has to quickly determine whether they should grant a patient's request for
- 10 The survey done at the gynaecology clinic showed that had more impact on patients there.

- 1 The Dogon tribe relies on astrology and they can recognise the different
- 2 The Weyaka people get rich by to others.
- 3 The Pacahuara tribe makes an effort to preserve nature, so they are conscientious about their
- 4 The Nanti tribe is doing all they can to be able to go back to their
- 5 The professor who was discussing about the tribes from Africa supports
- 6 The Nanti tribe admits they have difficulties with the process to
- 7 For the Dogon tribe, is very important so they always focus on this activity.
- 8 In the Weyaka tribe, the government plays a huge role in and they really focus efforts on this.
- 9 The Pacahuara tribe are a very open and welcoming people, so it wasn't difficult to encourage them to in another area.
- 10 The Nanti tribe are a very giving and caring people, so they value the different kinds of that they receive.

- 1 Mona says her presentation will include its history from the 1800s.
- 2 Mona would like to be able to talk about various topics related to the subject of design development and see the to it.
- 3 Ted, who is Mona's friend, told her that her presentation is
- 4 When it comes to computers, Mona's viewpoint is that they have already influenced
- 5 For Ted, "purism" is very important and he
- 6 Ted had recommended Mona to so she can have a better insight for her presentation.
- 7 The first thing that Mona needs to prepare for her presentation is the, which she has to write soon.
- 8 The other thing that Mona needs to do for her presentation is to conduct further of the topic.
- 9 Another thing that Mona needs to complete is put a on the picture slides with accompanying explanations in support of the statements.
- 10 One more thing that Mona needs to finish before the presentation is the

- 1 The students working on the presentation feel that they have for the assignment's introduction.
- 2 Members of the group working on the presentation think that they should use the for the body structure.
- 3 One of the students working on the presentation thinks their solutions are too long.
- 4 Jane feels the conclusion has to include to improve on the presentation.
- 5 Jane informed her peers that she would like to prepare a task for the presentation.
- 6 According to Mike, the can be divided to discuss matters as a group.
- 7 The students were advised to, so they can gather information faster.
- 8 According to the professor, information about the should be emphasised in the presentation's conclusion.
- 9 The professor suggested that they put emphasis on at the end of their presentation.
- 10 The professor informed them that what they should emphasise in the presentation's conclusion is the

- 1 The energy harvest invention relates to a that uses fuel cells.
- 2 The thin solar panel films can be with no effect on quality.
- 3 Sports shoes are being used as a model to incorporate
- 4 Many believe that the wind turbine can meet
- 5 Scientists discovered that using hi-tech packaging for fruits can actually
- 6 There would be a greater demand for electric sports cars if they had a
- 7 The innovative feature at the seed vault in the North Pole is its ability to collected stable for a long time.
- 8 According to the Svalbard Global Seed Vault in the North Pole, the seeds are available for the use of
- 9 Darrel said he couldn't do the presentation because he has a of the subject.
- 10 Carol didn't want to discuss the innovation at the presentation because she would rather talk about how can be used in better ways.

- 1 The students were advised to check the accuracy of their in the last section of the book report.
- 2 The students were told that they need to expand more on their ideas if they want better grades, so they should provide more
- 3 Karen is scheduled to make her presentation at the
- 4 During the presentation, Karen will have to she conducted.
- 5 Karen should be able to submit an of her presentation by the 26th of November.
- 6 The presentation has been scheduled to take place at the
- 7 Karen's presentation will be analysed and graded by
- 8 For the next semester, Karen has chosen courses that will improve her
- 9 For the next semester, Karen has chosen courses in
- 10 For the next semester, Karen has chosen courses in

- 1 Their research showed that feeding the pigeons caused them to become
- 2 According to the researchers, the government will resolve the problem by for the pigeons.
- 3 The environmental experts say the second stage of the research will be quite
- 4 The researchers discovered that the most successful method was about the pigeons' habits and characteristics.
- 5 The students have been assigned to conduct further research on the effects of pigeons on
- 6 The Australian Crested pigeons were discovered to have the ability to communicate with their
- 7 Rock pigeons that nest best in rooms have been discovered in a
- 8 The Black-banded pigeon has a strange habit of
- 9 The Galapagos pigeon gets poisoned by meat of any kind, so they only eat the leaves of a
- 10 The Nicobar pigeon's appearance is very attractive because it has a