

1

Wild crocodile resettlement

- 1 The current research is special because they are now
- 2 Studies conducted in the past were done with the use of
- 3 It was convenient but it was problematic because it always
- 4 Crocodiles are difficult to catch because they know how to
- 5 Crocodiles travel to mangrove wetlands and wait for a prey for a whole week before going back home via the most
- 6 Scientists and researchers place a tracking device into the of the crocodiles.
- 7 The captured crocodiles are relocated to different places by a
- 8 Information transmitted from the tracking device reveals how easily crocodiles can
- 9 The study revealed that crocodiles find their way by determining their position to the
- 10 Research has shown that crocodiles have the same system as birds.

2

The British textile industry

D1-20

- 1 There were employees in the textile industry before the 20th century.
- 2 The old were closed down due to the invasion of industries from other countries.
- 3 in the 20th century were mainly made for women.
- 4 The itsy-bitsy that many celebrities wear leave absolutely nothing to the imagination.
- 5 It is beneficial to hire and produce less output, considering that today's labour costs have gotten much more expensive.
- 6 A person's ability to use a language for a variety of purposes, such as speaking, listening, reading, and writing is referred to as
- 7 Technologists are responsible for identifying in the textile industry.
- 8 The operations manager is responsible for processes and controlling output quality.
- 9 Complaints are generally handled by, who are directly responsible for dealing with complainants.
- 10 The storefront display is designed and arranged by the

3

The disappearance of written language

- 1 Ancient writers wrote on a variety of, aside from paper.
- 2 Different of materials such as pottery, animal hides, and wood were used by ancient writers.
- 3 The writings can be found on walls of caves in many places around the world.
- 4 There are not of ancient writings on paper since paper was not widely used in the 8th or 9th century.
- 5 Stonehenge is a prehistoric in England that is believed to have been a burial ground.
- 6 The lost and forgotten books of ancient sacred are a part of their heritage.
- 7 The of writing in hieroglyphic script could be horizontal or vertical.
- 8 They found around 200 mysterious stone that dotted the landscape in the desert.
- 9 Children today still spend many hours practicing in school.
- 10 Children get to practice oral and written language in today's

4

The development of urban immigration

U
D1-20

- 1 One point against urban immigration states that less internal migration into urban areas results in less being consumed.
- 2 One environmental advantage of people moving to the cities is that will get to recover.
- 3 When more people move to cities, will be more environmentally friendly.
- 4 It is environmentally advantageous for people to move to cities because they would create more that can be recycled into methane gas.
- 5 One economic advantage of moving to the city is that women are more likely to be considered for at work.
- 6 One downside of moving to the city is the possibility of during the process.
- 7 Cities have a much higher and this is one downside to moving to urban areas.
- 8 Cities in general have a poor and this is disadvantageous for people moving from rural to urban areas.
- 9 If more people move to cities, it will be economically disadvantageous because more energy will be wasted on
- 10 People who are used to a slower pace of life will find and difficult to bear.

5

Marine mammal research

- 1 Research done today is more accurate than those in the past due to a wider international in geographical work.
- 2 The main focus of the lecture is to showcase the on other species.
- 3 About 1000 years ago, sea otters were captured in nearby resulting in the decline of kelp forests in Alaska.
- 4 The decline of sea otters in affects the health of kelp forests and the diet of eagles.
- 5 started 300 years ago, when the Spanish came to America.
- 6 When the number of sea otters in Alaska, the bald eagles were forced to change their diet.
- 7 Sea urchins are the biggest threat to kelp forests, and as the number of sea otters declined, the number of sea urchins
- 8 With the decline in the number of sea otters, the population of sea urchins, destroying the balance in the ecosystem.
- 9 The principal breeding-ground of is the portion that included the Pribilof Islands off the coast of mainland Alaska.
- 10 Scientists believe that the of kelp forests will have a major impact on the survival of many sea creatures.

6

Textile design

- 1 At Ernabella Arts, they sell rugs made from, as well as gloves, bonnets, sweaters and boots.
- 2 Tiwi Design specialises in textile products with such as birds.
- 3 The Tiwi Design company also creates textile products with different representations such as the
- 4 Bima Wear is a fashion outfit that specialises in clothes that are created based on symbols, structures,
- 5 Desert Designs was created by the design artist, Jimmy Pike, who started his career in
- 6 Desert Designs also creates pattern designs that can be used in
- 7 Jimmy Pike's concept for Desert Designs was inspired by the times he has spent in the
- 8 Cathy Freeman's jeans that featured lizards and a were created based on the art of the aboriginal artist and designer Bronwyn Bancroft.
- 9 The typical background for Bronwyn Bancroft's fabrics looks like a
- 10 The fabric phone case protects mobile phones from 7

History of the town market near Sydney

- 1 The topic for the research was chosen to be able to reference in their studies.
- 2 Wildlife trade continues to be a problem because it threatens our ecosystem by hunting and selling
- 3 The government spends most of its revenue on the of the market area.
- 4 The of goods has been gravely affected due to the issues concerning the construction of the train station.
- 5 The Bell Tower Building is a historic two-storey brick structure which was first used as a police headquarters and in Cumberland, Maryland.
- 6 Information about the was gathered as a primary investigation procedure.
- 7 The information materials that were gathered were problematic, as they proved to be data.
- 8 One of the methods utilised in the was the conducting of interviews of old people in the area.
- 9 Old were gathered and carefully indexed for future reference.
- 10 Problems surfaced from the old photographs because they included images related to

8History of Cape Breton mine in Canada

D1-20

- 1 In the history of Canadian coal production, the first step was to move the coals from the
- 2 The government helped Cape Breton develop an efficient to increase coal production.
- 3 In the past, people only came to work seasonally, in; but the situation changed when they discovered the mines.
- 4 The population in started to decline as more and more people starting to work in the mines.
- 5 After some years, the production started to increase until the for 40% of Canada's coal.
- 6 The people that travelled to Cape Breton for mining jobs mostly came from and Italy.
- 7 The first item that was sold at the auction was a vintage plaster cast human hand torch-..... holder.
- 8 The Davy Lamp is a safety lamp used in flammable atmospheres, so the flame is enclosed and inside a mesh screen.
- 9 The advantage of using a Davy Lamp is that it causes in the coal mines.
- 10 The Carbide Lamp contains materials that make water turn yellow and

9New swimming technology

- 1 The primary use of the swimming pool is to train swimmers to enable them to get in competitions.
- 2 The technology is quite special and unique because it combines various
- 3 The swimming pool has a great impact on an that leads to much greater performance.
- 4 The swimming pool was built primarily to train and the skills of swimmers.
- 5 The swimming pool is equipped and surrounded by which record a swimmers every move.
- 6 Jake is generally a very good swimmer but his main weakness is that he has a
- 7 While Jake's weakness is the slow start, Sujan's weakness is that he has a
- 8 Although he is quite a good swimmer, Mike's weakness is his
- 9 Rina is the only female in the team and her weakness is in deep waters because she couldn't
- 10 Mark is generally on the same level as the other guys, but he has a weakness in the

- 1 The company's captures what the company stands for in a brief and memorable way.
- 2 Section-1 of the work placement procedures states that the student's should be attached to the company application form.
- 3 Section-2 states that students can choose 6 skills, but they should only write a of 500 words for each, as more writing won't raise scores.
- 4 Section-3 explains how for all positions are generally conducted.
- 5 Section-4 explains how evaluation is conducted for appropriate
- 6 Requested is provided by the "first class" students of the school.
- 7 Employees are advised to first consult with their when they encounter problems in the workplace.
- 8 The for submission is the 9th, so there's still 3 weeks before the June 30th deadline to work on any required revisions.
- 9 The placement offices come to talk to the students.
- 10 The students have been informed to the if they encounter any problems.