Saif and Hamad's Smart Money Choices

Saif and Hamad talk about money every day. They want to be careful with their money. Saif works and earns money. He uses money to buy food and clothes. He always checks the price before he buys anything. If something is too expensive, he does not buy it. He looks for things that are cheap.

Hamad likes to save money. He puts his money in a small box. He does not spend a lot. He says "This is important. That is important. "He chooses carefully.

Sometimes, Saif wants to buy new things, but Hamad says, "Do we need these or those? "They think about the cost and decide together.

They also sell old things to get more money. This helps them save and spend wisely.
