

Part 1: Relative Pronouns (who, which, that, whose, where)

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the correct relative pronoun. If the pronoun can be omitted (it is the object of the clause), put it in brackets, like this: (who).

1. That's the mechanic _____ repaired my car last week.
2. The hotel _____ we stayed was right on the beach.
3. This is the book _____ I told you about.
4. I met a girl _____ brother is a famous professional footballer.
5. Summer is the season _____ I feel most energetic.
6. The painting, _____ was created in 1920, is worth millions.
7. Is that the man _____ dog was barking all night?
8. The restaurant _____ serves the best pasta is just around the corner.
9. My best friend, _____ lives in Tokyo, is coming to visit next month.
10. The laptop _____ I bought yesterday is already making a strange noise.

Part 2: Have / Get Something Done (Causative)

Instructions: Use the "have + object + past participle" structure to complete the sentences. Pay attention to the tense!

11. My hair was too long, so I _____ (it / cut) yesterday.
12. Your car is making a weird noise. You should _____ (it / service).
13. We don't want to paint the kitchen ourselves; we are going to _____
(it / paint) by a professional.
14. She didn't fix the leak herself; she _____ (the pipe / repair) by a plumber.
15. How often do you _____ (your eyes / test)?
16. I can't find my documents! I need to _____ (them / photocopy) before the meeting.
17. Last year, they _____ (a new roof / fit) after the storm.
18. I think I'll _____ (my suit / dry-clean) for the wedding.
19. We _____ (the house / burglar-proof) last month to feel safer.
20. Instead of buying a new dress, she _____ (her old one / shorten).