
TIME TO PRACTICE!

Join the sentences using the relative pronoun 'who'. There is one example.

1. Mary is the woman. She is wearing a long red dress.

Mary is the woman who is wearing a long red dress.

2. Mr Johnson is the teacher. He teaches Music.

3. Teacher Kimberly is the woman. She has got curly brown hair.

4. Tom is the boy. He plays football every day.

5. Mr Smith is the man. He is talking to my mum.

6. Anna is the girl. She is skipping the rope.

7. They are the children. They play in the park in the afternnon.

8. Alex is my friend. He has lunch at school.

9. Mark is the boy. He has got straight black hair.

10. I am the girl. I sometimes listen to rock music.

11. Tania is the girl. She is wearing black trousers.
