

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

EARTH DAY VOCABULARY

Read the two sentences. Complete the second sentence with my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. Tom has got a green bottle. _____ bottle is reusable.
2. I have got a small plant. _____ plant helps the air.
3. Anna has got a blue bag. _____ bag is made of recycled plastic.
4. You have got a notebook. _____ notebook is about Earth Day.
5. The cat has got a box. _____ box is made of cardboard.
6. We have got trees in the garden. _____ trees give us oxygen.
7. They have got bikes. _____ bikes do not pollute the air.
8. Mark has got a metal straw. _____ straw is eco-friendly.
9. I have got a water bottle. _____ bottle is made of glass.
10. Sarah has got gloves. _____ gloves are for cleaning the park.
11. You have got a T-shirt. _____ T-shirt is green for Earth Day.
12. The dog has got a toy. _____ toy is made from old fabric.
13. We have got posters. _____ posters are for Earth Day.
14. They have got bags for recycling. _____ bags are full.
15. Emma has got a plant pot. _____ pot is made from recycled plastic.
16. I have got seeds. _____ seeds will grow into flowers.
17. You have got a hat. _____ hat is for the Earth Day parade.
18. Leo has got a bike. _____ bike is very old but useful.
19. We have got a garden. _____ garden is full of flowers.
20. The children have got drawings. _____ drawings show nature.