

Street Manners

Follow the Sunnah Signs

Ayah or Hadeeth	Situation
“Be modest in your bearing and subdue your voice.” (Surat Luqman)	Ahmed saw an old man in the street carrying a heavy bag.
“Guidance to the way is an act of charity.”	In an argument Saad angrily stomped his feet and raised his voice in a restaurant.
“Give the road its due”	Fatima saw a woman asking for the way towards the market.
“Your removal of stones and thorns and bones is an act of charity”	Ali saw a few boys playing football in the middle of the street.
“If he helps a man ride a horse or lift his luggage to its back it will be an act of charity.”	Omer saw his neighbor passing by in the street.
“O people, exchange greetings of peace”	While jogging Sameer saw a huge stone on the track.