

Follow the Sunnah Signs

| Ayah or Hadeeth                                                                                | Drop | Situation                                                                          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| "Be modest in your bearing and subdue your voice." (Surat Luqman)                              |      | Ahmed saw an old man in the street carrying a heavy bag.                           |
| "Guidance to the way is an act of charity."                                                    |      | In an argument Saad angrily stomped his feet and raised his voice in a restaurant. |
| "Give the road its due"                                                                        |      | Fatima saw a woman asking for the way towards the market.                          |
| "Your removal of stones and thorns and bones is an act of charity"                             |      | Ali saw a few boys playing football in the middle of the street.                   |
| "If he helps a man ride a horse or lift his luggage to its back it will be an act of charity." |      | Omer saw his neighbor passing by in the street.                                    |
| "O people, exchange greetings of peace"                                                        |      | While jogging Sameer saw a huge stone on the track.                                |