

Expressing future TEST

Answer the discussion questions in full sentences. Remember, you will be graded on your usage of different ways of expressing future.

1. What are you doing this weekend?
2. Where will you be hiding when everyone else is celebrating something you don't like?
3. What technology do you think people will have invented just to make life harder?
4. By the end of today, what will you have eaten that you may regret later?
5. What are you going to change about your daily routine this year?
6. How do you think technology will change the way people work?
7. By the time you retire, what important life experiences will you have had?
8. By this time next year, how long will you have been studying in our school?

9. What will people still be arguing about in 100 years' time?

10. What silly thing do you think you'll have stopped doing by the time you're 60?

11. What excuse will you be using in the future when you forget someone's birthday?

12. In 20 years' time, what will people be laughing at about our way of life now?