

(Resign)

- The _____ prime minister gave a final press conference on the palace steps.
- With a _____ sigh, he accepted that he wouldn't finish the project on time.

(Inform)

- She is an exceptionally _____ critic whose reviews are respected worldwide.
- The _____ witness had to be relocated for their own safety.

(Estimate)

- The _____ time of arrival is 10:30 PM, depending on traffic.
- He cast an _____ glance at the antique, trying to figure out its market value.

(Resolve)

- We need a camera with higher _____ power to see the details of the fabric.
- After the scandal, the board remained _____ to restore the company's image.

(Appreciate)

- Investors prefer _____ assets, such as real estate, over depreciating ones.
- It is rare to find a workplace where employees feel truly _____.

(Determine)

- A _____ student will always find a way to access the necessary resources.
- The _____ factor in the election was the sudden economic downturn.

(Stagger)

- To avoid a rush at the entrance, the event organizers used _____ entry times.
- The cost of the new stadium was a _____ $2 billion.

(Assume)

- She has an _____ manner that often rubs her colleagues the wrong way.
- His _____ indifference was actually a mask for deep anxiety.

(Compose)

- Even under intense interrogation, the spy remained perfectly _____.
- The _____ room was quiet, filled only with the scratching of pens on staff paper.

(Distinguish)

- The suspect's only _____ feature was a small scar above his left eye.
- He had a long and _____ career in international diplomacy.